Survivor Alexander Shaumyan

Survivor for Eric Hauptly It's getting better and there's no denying The bullshit I put up with and her lies Are slowly diminishing and dying -- And I'm glad to know that I survived. Some people are a bitter pill to swallow When you begin to trust them with your love, Only to find their affections hollow And that your love is never good enough. But they will reap one day what they have sown -- As they get tangled in their web of lies Until they find that they are all alone Because it's trust that makes true love alive. Self-love and self-respect are cultivated By recognizing love is not abuse, That love is not about tolerating Someone who's cheating and just hurting you. So I am free to move to newer vistas, To newer lovers, poems and new books -- And to my aging love -- ¡Hasta la vista! Your love is overrated like your looks. April 11, 2006 --Alexander Shaumyan
