Dawn Summers has been in love with the sexy drawl of Richard Drace since she laid eyes on him three years ago. However, after the horrible incident in his office she finally realizes Richard is never going to return her feelings. She leaves in a fit of anger, declaring to never set foot in his presence again...until he seeks her out to help save his failing business. Richard Drace isn't known for saying the words "I'm Sorry," but he'll do anything and everything in his power to get Dawn back into his life. He promises himself that he will be the man Dawn wants and needs. Yet, he has encountered a road block he wasn't expecting. Dawn is no longer in love with him. Is it too late for him to win Dawn back and make her realize that she has shown him his first taste of love?
