Excerpt from Days Near Rome, Vol. 1 of 2

Earnestly apologize to my readers for their imperfections. The ground, in many instances, had been almost untrodden several of the places described are difficult of access, and have never before been visited by foreigners; and, in most cases, published descriptions either do not exist at all already, or are so inaccurate and untrustworthy as to be only misleading. A great field for discovery still remains, even within a day's journey of Rome; and if, in opening the way to others, I lead them to enjoy half the pleasure I have received from my own researches, I shall be more than rewarded.
