We all want to be truly happy... You may be hoping that reading this book will help you get there. But before you read it, you should know that it is not written by a psychologist or Buddhist monk. It is not written by a spiritual leader or even a motivational speaker. It is written by a person who struggles with life and all of its challenges. A person who has been blessed with miracles, yet has been to the depths of despair. A real person just like you. So it is from the perspective of that person, not a professional, that this book is written. It is through real-life stories and personal reflections, not religious dogma or psychology research, that the message unfolds. Yet the message is very simple: the door to happiness is not locked.
