A New Vision of Reality: Western Science, Eastern Mysticism and Christian Faith Bede Griffiths

An extension of ideas explored in the author's earlier book, "The Marriage of East and West", this volume looks at Christianity in the context of modern physics on the one hand and Eastern mysticism on the other. The author looks at the history of the growing consciousness of humanity as the revelation of the divine emerged in the major religions, basing his views on his own Christian convictions and the many years he has spent in India.
