Agreement on the Rescue of Astronauts, the Return of Astronauts and the Return of Objects Launched into Outer Space: 1968-2008 (Essential Air and Space Law)

This book brings together contributions by distinguished scholars and experienced practitioners written in honour of the 40th birthday of The UN 1968 Agreement on the Rescue of Astronauts, Return of Astronauts and Return of Objects Launched into Outer Space. It gives an historic account of the Agreement and sets out the current developments in this field. It also deals with future perspectives, and addresses questions such as: Should the Astronauts Agreement be revised and be limited to persons, excluding the recovery on the Earth and include settlements on the Moon and other celestial bodies? Should the Astronauts Agreement be complemented and if so, should this be done via a UN General Assembly Declaration? Which topics should be included: the Moon base (access, rescue, use); journey to Mars; space platform on the Moon? The thought-provoking contributions in this book cannot fail to be of importance to anyone interested in space law and will be an interesting contribution to the discussions in this field This book is the fifth volume in our Essential Air and Space Law Series.
