“I thought you and I were on the same page.” “And what page is that?” “That I want to be with you forever.” Turns out forever didn’t last as long as Aileen thought it would. While she’s busy picking up the pieces of her broken heart, she throws her focus back into the one thing that has always been constant—track. Tyler’s eligibility for NCAA track is over. He’s now focused on professional football. He opts to finish the rest of his courses online and move to Foxborough, MA and begin his preseason training. He’s running away and he knows it. However, running’s better than being forced to see Aileen and knowing he’d begged her to come with him and she turned him down. It hurts too much. What do you do when life gets in the way of love? How do you let go of a heart that can’t stop loving?
