What if it starts

to snow?

What do you do?

Where do you go?

What if it starts to snow. What do you do? Where do you go?" So begins this winter story, as each animal--from a mouse to a bear--tells us what it will do and where it will go when the snow starts to fall. Each takes cover in its own special home, except for one. Can you guess who?

Phillis Gershator's chant-along verse encourages listener participation, and is best enjoyed when read aloud. The inquisitive text and dashing illustrations by Martin Matje make this a delightful picture book for reading under the covers when the weather gets chilly. Poetic and imaginative, When It Starts to Snow celebrates winter in all its cozy glory.

Luis Gazaway:

As a student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library in order to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's spirit or real their leisure activity. They just do what the professor want, like asked to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this When It Starts to Snow can make you experience more interested to read.
