A Fly on the (Great) Wall: Personal Observations on China and the Chinese People (and What They Might Mean for America) Mr. Jay Holleran

"A Fly on the (Great) Wall" is a collection of essays and personal observations about the similarities and differences between life in modern China and life in the United States. It is based on the author's years of traveling to, and living in, China. Its focus is on the period of tremendous change, from 2004 to 2008, in the run-up to the Beijing Olympics, as China prepared to open its doors and welcome the world.
