The Truth about Your Business Tmima Grinvald

Running a business means making smart decisions about strategies, processes, and people. You name it, you're responsible for it.

Tmima Grinvald, a certified professional coach and former military officer, helps you make business decisions that will pay off big. Just as important, she walks you through how to fix costly mistakes that hurt morale and erode profits. In seventy-three focus lessons, you'll learn skills such as how to:

- improve your crisis management skills;
- master the core skills that mean the most;
- sustain a consistent level of performance; and
- do something outside your comfort zone.

She also shares strategies that will help you learn more about yourself, including what makes you tick, what you're most passionate about learning, and what causes you to think negative thoughts.

The daily focus sessions are your guide to continual improvement and evaluating and improving company performance. Break challenges into manageable parts and prioritize efforts with the guidance and insights in The Truth about Your Business.
