Blessed English: Return to Your Glory is an inspirational book. Full of intelligent stimulation and ideas for all who are interested in the genre of religion and spirituality, and those who are particularly seeking direction, this is a 'Book of Revelation' which was given to the author by God. Whilst fasting and praying for 1100 days (3 years), the author sought God's face and at the end of this period, God revealed his progressive plans. Sharing these plans with the reader is the author's calling and this resulting book showcases, essentially, why and how God has blessed the English and made them the pinnacle of beauty and glory that they are today. Highly sought-after, above all nations and race, the Blessed English are the number one citizens of all the kingdoms on earth. The book warns, however, that the glory of the English is about to fade away, their star eclipsed and their place of honour is about to diminish. Their continuous resistance to God and the persistence of current lifestyles will be the reasons why they fall from grace. With the exposition of historical facts and realities, and a plethora of stimulating biblical references, the author guides everyone towards these revelations of God's mysteries and His response to our behaviour and earth work. Will the English avoid the same fate that befell Israel in the face of their stubborn resistance to God? Told with honesty, authority and intelligence, this book is crucial to the future of the English race. Sample a small part of this incredibly powerful message by using the 'Look Inside' feature and may the blessings of God follow you as you read this book.
