Do It Yourself Credit File Correction Guide Paul Richard

The ICFE Do-It-Yourself Credit File Correction Guide, in its Ninth Printing (March 2001) is a step-by-step guide for consumers desiring to remove and or correct mistakes in their credit files and, check writing files. Included with each Guide are valuable credit file request forms required of consumers seeking their credit files by credit reporting agencies. These forms include the names, addresses and 800 telephone numbers of the major credit reporting agencies and check approval systems currently operating in the United States. Also included in the ICFE Guide are step-by-step instructions on the correction process, answers to the most often asked questions, explanation of consumer credit rights, and about a dozen sample letters to use when communicating with the various credit reporting agencies. Also there are addresses of various governmental agencies which oversee creditors, and a bonus section on how to establish or reestablish credit. The Guide received a "buy" rating from nationally syndicated Tribune Media writer, Humberto Cruz' in his "Savings Game" column which appeared in over 30 newspapers nationwide in July and August. The Guide also received a "send for" rating from BottomLine/Personal Newsletter (09-01-01)
