The Future Kingdom Volume 3: The Prince Stephen R. Bush

The third and final volume of The Future Kingdom series pursues the topic into the New Testament. When the promised Prince arrives on the scene, does He proclaim a change in the Kingdom presented by the Old Testament prophets? Does Jesus redirect Kingdom teaching from an emphasis on national Israel to the church, and from a physical realm to one that is invisible and spiritual only? Special attention is given to the Messiah's offer of the Kingdom to Israel, His parables, the future that Jesus saw beyond His death, the contribution of Pentecost and the Jerusalem Council, the apostolic view of the Kingdom, and the meaning of Revelation 20. There is also significant treatment of passages that seem to pose problems for the position advanced in this series. With this concluding volume, God's entire plan for Christ's Kingdom on earth is seen in all of its consistency, glory, and motivational power.
