How To Become A Successful Artist/Painter? I wrote the book "A STRATEGIC PAINTER" because when I was looking for a similar book years ago to start out my career as a Professional Painter, I could not find one. So for the past fifteen years I went through a journey and learnt the "tricks of the trade" through trial and error with research and analysis. I read a lot of books that danced around the subject of Art but were mainly catered towards the business aspect of being an Artist. I figured that perhaps there are more people like me out there and if I can help them out and save them a few years, then that is a good thing. I am tired of hearing the phrase the "Starving Artist" and I sincerely believe on the contrary that the Painters have a lot to offer to the "Starving World" that is devoid of fresh ideas and innovative concepts. I want the aspiring Painters out there to reach their "Self-Actualization" (being a dynamic and prolific painter that they are born to be) in the shortest amount of time possible. It is my sincere desire that they get busy by having a more focused approach (using this book as a road map) when it comes to starting their careers as A Strategic Painter.
