The girl with silver eyes (Beyond The Impossible) (Volume 1) Fabio Furlanetto

From the weekly webseries, an epic tale of science fiction versus mythology and superpowers. Noriko Null was a seemingly ordinary Asian-American teen, until the goddess Athena decided to make her Earth's first line of defense against the impossible. Now armed only with superhuman intelligence and instant access to all of humanity's knowledge, Noriko will have to solve the world's problems, face the secrets behind her transformation, and fight Greek gods in space in her spare time. She will be helped the eclectic team under her leadership: a goddess who used to work as a waitress, an African-American comic book reader who will become the world's first superhero, an alien girl with the power to create thousand of copies of herself, and the galaxy's most taciturn and unusual swordsman. Will the world's smartest girl be able to defeat the all-powerful goddess Demeter and survive the schemes of her tyrannical family?
