Avoid Retirement and Stay Alive Keith Davies and David Bogan

Wake up - retirement is a dumb idea with no place in modern society. It's absurd, economically unviable, and can kill you. In a radical, controversial but definitely thought-provoking new approach to the second half of your life, crisis specialists Keith Davies and David Bogan challenge you to turn everything you've been conditioned to think about retirement on its head. In this revised edition of their earlier bestselling title, they skilfully dissect the retirement industry and arrive at some life-changing conclusions, with inspiring real-life examples of enlightened individuals who have looked intelligently at their future and decided to live actively and stay in control ... right to the end. The bad news? There will be no 'comfortable retirement' for most of us. An outlook the worldwide recession has brought into sharper focus for all of us. The good news? There is an exciting, vibrant life beyond a miserly, uncertain pension and the rest-home shuffle. This book will show you how to make it yours.
