Economics of Cultural Decisions

James L. Shanahan, William S. Hendon

Economics of Cultural Decisions James L. Shanahan, William S. Hendon

Originally published by Abt Books in 1983, this collection of essays applies the logic and technique of economics to cultural decisions. These decisions made in the cultural field are divided into the decisions made by government concerning cultural policy, decisions made by the cultural firms which function in the world of profit making, and finally by the decisions which consumers make in selecting from the kind and variety of cultural goods available to them.
