An orphan at three years old, a low chance of ever carrying a child, and in her second marriage, Iman is afraid she will die alone. Everything that has ever gone wrong in her life, happened during the Christmas season. Needless to say, Iman isn't thrilled about celebrating Christmas. Finally married to the man of her dreams, Micah Carrington, a successful oncologist who'd do anything to make her happy. But even he can't give her the one gift she most desires. Determined not to put too much trust in Micah's promises, she ignores his plea for her to trust in God's plan. Instead, she takes matters into her own hands. Will Iman's trust issues and need for control jeopardize her dream of having her own child with the man of her dreams?
