Seven Soviet Poets (Blackwell Russian Texts)

Seven Soviet Poets (Blackwell Russian Texts)

This anthology contains selections from seven major Soviet poets - Blok, Esenin, Mayakovsky, Pasternak, Akhmatova, Voznesensky and Evtushenko - covering the entire Soviet period, from the roots of the Revolution to the present day. It both illustrates the three main poetic movements of the early twentieth century - Symbolism, Futurism and Acmeism - and shows how these influenced the work of later writers like Pasternak and Voznesensky. In concentrating on seven key poets, this collection allows the reader to examine each individual in depth and to focus on common and contrasting themes and techniques. Like the other volumes in this series, it includes an introduction, notes and vocabulary.
