The Musician's Atlas

The Musician's Atlas

Completely updated and revised for 2005 with new categories and line items, the best-selling industry resource, The Musician's Atlas let's you work smarter not harder.

Covering all aspects of the music business- performance, production, promotion and distribution, The Atlas is the resource that hopeful beginners and world-class pros rely on all yearlong to build and sustain their careers.

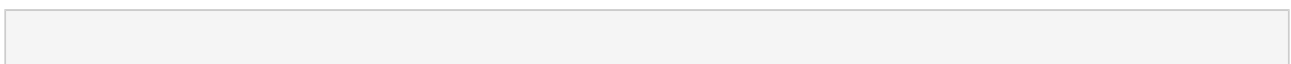

Now available in print and online versions, the Atlas supplies the important details that other resources leave out - details such as submission policies, booking advance, stage size, in-house equipment, broadcast coverage, distribution and other category specifics.

The AtlasOnline features nearly 1/3 more listings than the print edition, with new listings and updates added bi-weekly. The system's interactive functionality allows subscribers to click directly to company websites and maximize their marketing efforts with broadcast emails, mailing labels and other custom features.

More than 15,000 US & Int'l music industry contacts in over 28 music business categories have been researched and qualified for 2005 including:

- * Club talent buyers
- * Traditional & Alternative Performance Spaces
- * Commercial & Public Radio Programmers
- * College Radio & Booking (USA & Canada)
