Silverwood Betsy Streeter

The Silverwoods are a clan with a messy history and an uncertain future, responsible to protect humanity from the shape-shifting Tromindox. Helen Silverwood, fourteen, is beginning to realize that she will never lead a normal life. There have been clues: Her mother's unusual work habits, her father's absence, her brother's strange abilities with a pencil and paper, and her own recurring dreams and hacker tendencies. And, the family's constant moves from place to place. Things are about to get much more complicated, and it all leads to the remote town of Brokenneck, California. Can the Silverwoods keep from losing each other in space and time, while unraveling a dangerous mystery?
