In medieval England a gypsy witch and her dwarf brother help a small village fight a primitive vampire that lives in a nearby pond. And magic is used for malice. The gypsy witch finds she has to battle a prosperous member of the village, a comely bad witch who makes the town's coffins and shoes, as she seduces as many of the menfolk as she can. All the while the cursed abbey and mill dam threaten to collapse; a green man ghost chases a green martyr monk into town from Ireland; druid visions begin to instruct the gypsy witch so old legends reenact pre-Celtic history; and the true Goddess appears to assure everyone She understands both sides of the fray.
