Bjarne Melgaard: Soci t  Anonyme Beate Ermacora

Characterized by an offhand and chaotic style that can overwhelm and almost invade the spectator's space, Bjarne Melgaard's installations, sculptures, drawings, photographs and videos are an assault on Minimalism and a medley of art and life. Content revolves around Melgaard's own life, not least his homosexuality, and often oversteps taboos to end up in the realm of the illegal.
