MindWare Perplexors: Expert Level MindWare

Our simple innovation makes learning logic possible for every level of ability. As children and students use the clues to cross out possibilities in each puzzle, they see information organizing itself into a sensible pattern. By discarding the old complicated matrix and using a process of elimination, a simple method is used to teach complex skills. With our Perplexors, children and students can prepare themselves for standardized test which reward logical thinking. Students will no longer be “tricked” by questions which require them to draw conclusion, and test scores will naturally improve. These logic puzzles present a great exercise for entire classrooms or single students alike. They even give students an opportunity to sharpen their skills while away from school, be it summer vacation just an after school weekday!
