Travis Martin last saw action as a Marine sniper in Vietnam - until he was medivacced out as a mental case. Now stateside in Georgia, his ongoing combat is to never again care about anyone, or anything, and to forget the horrors of war which he excelled at. When George Mitchell arrives at his door, wheelchair bound from saving Travis' life, Travis knows that George is the one man he can not deny a favor. George's Missionary grandchildren in Africa have been kidnapped by Muslim slavers, and even if it means practicing the art of death that had nearly driven him to insanity before, Travis is determined to get them out. With the help of some old Squad buddies and a few modern day Survivalists, they put together a mission of insertion and extraction. But it is Travis and Travis alone who must accompany a questionable and illegal band of African rescuers into Sudan and the very heart of the Janjaweed - Devils on Horseback.
