Pavel Pepperstein: The Cold Center of the Sun: Short Stories Pavel Pepperstein

Pavel Pepperstein (born 1966), long since acknowledged as the central figure in Russia's contemporary art scene, constitutes an important link between the older generation of Moscow Conceptualists and young aspiring artists in his country. In Pepperstein's graphic, painterly works, mysterious hybrid worlds open themselves up to the viewer's gaze. Motifs from Russian and ancient mythology encounter avant-garde forms in the style of El Lissitzky or Kasimir Malevich that are combined, much like collages, with Hollywood or science-fiction scenes. The artist adds a handwritten, annotative element to this bold blend. His playful gestures break through the confines of the familiar and ironically blend Russian icons with images taken from Western pop culture.

This catalogue gathers a selection of stories by Pepperstein, taken from his short story collection The Secret of Our Time, and his recent works on canvas.
