Reflections Mr. C. Barrymore Greene II

Poetry has given me the freedom to express my thoughts, feelings and emotions without the fear of being judged or sanctioned. My interaction with the environment, people places and things have stimulated me to explore the English language. This exploration has produced introspection, appreciation and humility. Above all, I discovered a channel through which I am able to communicate adoration, admiration, humility praise to God. It is His gift to me to be able to express myself through the written word.
