Do you feel you are too busy to write? Do you feel the burn of that creative spark that yearns to be set free? Do you struggle to come up with ideas and then struggle again to organize those hard-won ideas into workable projects? The Busy Writer will help you find the time AND inspiration to write. It is a simple, concise guide for the busy writer, written by a stay-at-home father of one-year-old twin boys. Using the methods in this book, Craig A. Hart finished a novel, published a collection of short stories, and wrote this book--The Busy Writer--in the course of one year, all while working to raise his twin boys. You, too, can use the principles found here to increase your own creative productivity.
