"That the Word of the Lord may have free course and be glorified."--II. Thes. 3:1. "saw Ye My SavIour? Heard Ye The Glad Sound? Felt Ye The Power Of The Word? Mary Baker Eddy. Seven West Ninety-s1xth Street New York C1ty October First, 1911. My Dear Student: You say that you have been reading the book published by the Christian Science Publishing Society entitled "Editorial Comments on the Life and Works of Mary Baker Eddy," and you add--"In studying the Bible Lesson this week, the subject of which is 'Are Sin. Disease and Death Real?'--I find myself questioning why the Directors of The Mother Church permitted to be published, and thereby endorsed, excerpts from editorial comments, the writers of which believe in the reality of sin, sickness and death. I was particularly moved by the following comments: "Two nights ago a frail little old gentlewoman died. A million hearts silently mourned her for a moment, but, in accordance with her own teachings, it was only a tribute of love and loyalty for the brighter and better view-point of their own life and death.'" I am glad to know, my dear student, that you resist this publication which is so absolutely the reverse of Mrs. Eddy's teaching. Where, in any of her writings, has she ever taught us the reality of death? Mrs. Eddy says, in Unity of Good, page 38, "It is unchristian to believe in the transition called material death, since matter has no life, and such misbelief must enthrone another power, an imaginary life, above the living and true God." Let me quote from the pamphlet this expression: "A loved and revered Leader had exchanged a mortal form for an immortal one." Page 8...
