The Gift of Rebecca: Growing Up in the Triangle Melissa Faith Robison

The Gift of Rebecca is a heartwarming memoir about the healing experience of being protected by angels during a turbulent childhood. Moving into a unique historical home, which formally housed over twenty slaves, Melissa at just six years old is able to pick up on the different energies in the home. While growing up in a highly active paranormal area of Southeastern Massachusetts, called the Bridgewater Triangle, Melissa experiences harsh repercussions for admitting to seeing a Spirit in her bedroom. This story describes firsthand how someone claiming to see ghosts was treated during the late 1980's. Since a small child Melissa continues to strive for the good of truth. Coming full circle, as an adult, Melissa has harnessed her ability to communicate with spirits to give healing messages to others.
