Falling in Love for All the Right Reasons: How to Find Your Soul Mate Neil Clark Warren

The founder of eHarmony-® -one of the most successful online relationship services ever created-reveals the secrets to finding a perfect, life-long soulmate. Most people know that the key to a successful, long-term relationship is compatibility. But how is that accomplished? And in an age when the majority of marriages end in divorce, how can one beat the odds? Now, Dr. Neil Clark Warren has distilled his 30 years of research on more than 5,000 successful marriages into a single amazing and enlightening guide. Using 29 key personality components, Warren shows how these character dimensions can be measured and compared before two people begin traveling down the road of commitment. With this essential information in hand, singles can immediately gauge whether a prospective mate is truly compatible, avoid the emotional pain of spending years with the wrong person, and be confident that the love they've found will last.
