What's The Matter With Texas?: And The Resulting Red State Blues Jim Green

WE are a “representative” government—when we vote [in any rational scheme of things] we are voting for persons who will look out for the best economic interests of our selves and our family—we are voting for someone who has our back....And unless your last name is Koch or Walton [a metaphor, here, for the 1%]—The Republican party does not have your back---they don’t represent you—indeed, the Republican party, today, has their hand in your pocket.....to even further enrich the Koch brothers! Not only did you vote against your own kid’s well being—you are a sucker to boot! And the Republicans are insufferable hypocrites....i.e., they have you chasing down blind alleys—in the name of “social values”—their policies undermine at every turn.....for instance, the House Republicans voted to cut $40 billion from Food Stamps [to gut the program] most of which goes to feed hungry children—children they demand women have, but are willing to starve to death, once born! One of our top journalists, who shall remain nameless, nailed it: “the Republican Party, has become an insurgent outlier — ideologically extreme; contemptuous of the inherited social and economic policy regime; scornful of compromise; unpersuaded by conventional understanding of facts, evidence and science; and dismissive of the legitimacy of its political opposition.”.
