Interpretive Master Planning presents - in two comprehensive volumes (of which this is the second) - a wealth of information on how to plan and design interpretive facilities and services. John Veverka's lively text uses anecdotes, case histories and interactive examples to illustrate every aspect of the interpretive process: from how to decide exactly what to interpret, and how best to do it, through to effective planning, implementation - and very much more. Interpretive Master Planning is the most comprehensive reference book on the subject - over 650 pages in two volumes - an invaluable resource for designing interpretation that really works. "Interpretive Master Planning is full of illuminating examples and practical suggestions. This classic work is an essential manual for professional interpreters and for those first approaching this fascinating discipline." - Dr Marta Brunelli, Chair of Heritage Education (Faculty of Cultural Heritage), University of Macerata, Italy.
