by Gershon Ron

An emotionally charged account, filled with ironic wit of the life changing plight of a Jewish country boy transported to the concentration camps. Gershon exposes the racist environment that enabled this to happen, and offers us an intimate glimpse into the day to day terrifying and surreal happenings in Auschwitz, Mauthausen, and Gunskirchen. His story is riveting, revealing, and meaningful as a whole, from his childhood experiences through the camps and recovery period to his immigration to Israel and its fight for statehood.

This is his story!
