Being a 1000-year-old vampire doesn't suck. Fabulously wealthy, Al Farkus lived the high life until he lost his fortune in the stock market crash of 1987. Suddenly, he faces the indignity of having to work for a living. But what kind of job would be appropriate for a vampire? Driving a taxicab, at night, of course! Al had found the perfect job, but then the job fell through, and he finds himself stranded in Madison, Wisconsin. Desperate, he applies at a worker-owned-and-operated cooperative cab company then must face the greatest horror of all, a job interview. But how is Al to deal with co-workers whom he views as inferiors? And although Al has renounced violence, what does he do when a murderer is on the loose? Follow Al's adventures as he tries to cope with cranky passengers, psychotic murderers and the odd things people do at baseball games.

Craig Rushing:

As a pupil exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or even make a summary for some guide, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's heart or real their passion. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to go to the library. They go to presently there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for you. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Vampire Cabbie can make you experience more interested to read.
