The Three Musketeers Alexandre Dumas

Enter a world of friendship, honor, and duty to your King in 17th-century France with this beautifully illustrated adaptation of the classic French novel by Alexandre Dumas.

This cloak-and-dagger tale follows the adventures of the three musketeers and their new friend D'Artagnan. As they seek to protect the King against the attempts to overthrow him by the Cardinal and his associates, they will learn that loyalty and friendship are the most important values.

This classic has been perfectly adapted for children aged eight and above. The original and modern illustrations breathe new life into this epic tale.

Bénédicte Rivière is an actor, voice-over artist, and children's book writer based in France.

Camille André is an illustrator and animated movie graphic artist. She has worked for Disney. She lives in Paris.
