The Scale of Deceit Come face to face with a fictional thriller that James Riggin and Sylvia Day have described as “riveting,” “revealing,” and “impossible to lay down.” It reveals the reality of the violence on the Texas Border today. When Ethan Bodean finished his mission in the Middle East, he was sick of the killing. He just wanted to go home to a peaceful life he had before the Seal Teams and the CIA. However, the future held a different path for him. The Cartel murdered his parents in their home, which set him on a campaign of revenge that entrenched terror into the Cartel in Mexico all the way to the elite in Washington D.C. He followed the money, eliminating as he went, not knowing when it would end. Would he ever find the peace he sought?
